

Singapore, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Australia, Indonesia, and India. We are a valued partner to many of the world's largest international financial services and insurance firms. We support our clients at all project management stages from the development of strategies and operational frameworks to the technical implementation and handover. Our expertise in business and technology combined with our methodic approach enable us to create sustainable added value for our client's business.

Consultant Financial Services (m/w/d)

The Transformation Team serves a wide range of clients in Banking, Insurance and Reinsurance. We offer you the opportunity to actively shape the team's continued growth right from the start. In our team, we encourage you to take responsibility early on to prove your skills. We place great value on togetherness. We work as a team and support each other in professional challenges.

- You will accompany projects at well-known banks or insurance companies after an induction phase tailored to your needs.
- You are responsible for the conception, detailed analysis and implementation of individual solutions for our customers.
- You quickly take on responsibility in agile teams and specialize in large platform projects, transformation or automation projects.
- You have an impact on Synpulse's development through exciting internal projects on a global level. You can participate in recruiting and shape the heart of Synpulse.

About you:

- You are fluent in both German and English. Additional languages, especially French, are considered as a significant advantage.
- You have a completed master's degree (or will have in the near future) and you are interested in a career in the financial services industry.
- Ideally, you have completed an internship at a bank, insurance company, or consulting firm.
- You have precise communication skills, using accurate, thought-through language to interact effectively with clients, colleagues and any other stakeholders.
- You are ready to go the extra-mile and to gain new experiences across different locations in Germany and Europe.
- You have acquired methodological competencies through academic focus and internships and are ready to apply them in a consulting role.
- You have exceptional analytical skills to effectively handle complex projects and an entrepreneurial way of thinking to develop even unconventional solutions for the client.
- You enjoy exploring new subjects and are ready to take the initiative in autonomously preparing hot off the press topics to present in front of the team.
- You have a strong sense of team spirit and collaborative skills crucial for project delivery and the collective success of Synpulse.

Why us:

- Four-Weeks New Employee School to perfectly prepare you for client projects and integrate you into the team
- Development and training through our Synpulse AcademyProgram® with at least 10 days of organized training, LinkedIn learning and an individual development budget.
- Your career opportunities are actively promoted by the mentorship program of experienced consultants
- Your work-life balance is important to us, we encourage flexible working and remote working
- Opportunity for relocation within the Synpulse group

- Participation in the success of the group - Don't just work for us | own the company with us - Synpulse gives you a share in the company's profits via a crypto-currency token.
- Your other benefits- Our benefit cafeteria offers you, among other things, cell phone contract, sports subscriptions (e.g. Urban Sports), Hello Fresh, Job-Bike and a BahnCard.
